

CONGRESSIONAL SCORECARD

Measuring Support for Equality in the 118th Congress

Dear Friends,

The LGBTQ+ community is growing in strength every day. With a record-high 75 million Equality Voters nationwide, informed voting and representation matters now more than ever. Throughout the 118th Congress, we have seen both the legislative backlash targeting the LGBTQ+ community and the unrelenting power we have to push progress forward.

Amidst the Human Rights Campaign's first ever National State of Emergency, anti-equality Members of Congress decided to echo the anti-LGBTQ+ extremist policies pioneered in the states. The 118th Congress had an unprecedented number of anti-LGBTQ+ votes, the majority of which specifically targeted the transgender community.

Republican leadership in the House of Representatives decided to use the annual appropriations bills and the National Defense Authorization Act to advance dozens of anti-LGBTQ+ provisions. These anti-equality measures threatened to restrict transgender health care, prohibit enforcement of civil rights protections, ban Pride flags and drag performances, eliminate diversity, equity, and inclusion programs, and allow licenses to discriminate against LGBTQ+ people. House Republican leaders largely refused to allow floor votes on amendments to strike these provisions. Fortunately, despite House Republicans' best attempts, we have prevented more than 100 anti-LGBTQ+ riders from being signed into law, a true testament to our organizing power.

The Senate saw far fewer attempts to attack the freedom of LGBTQ+ people. They stood firm against the extreme House legislation, and instead largely considered legislation to defend freedom with votes to expand voting rights, protect access to IVF and contraception, and secure the fundamental right to abortion and reproductive health care in the wake of the Supreme Court's Dobbs decision.

Furthermore, the last two years saw an increase in openly LGBTQ+ officials, judges, and ambassadors. The historic appointment of Senator Laphonza Butler (D-CA) gave us the first Black lesbian to serve in the Senate, joining Senators Tammy Baldwin (D-WI) and Kyrsten Sinema (I-AZ) for a record number of openly LGBTQ+ Senators. In the courts, Nicole Berner is now the first openly LGBTQ+ person to ever serve on the 4th Circuit Court of Appeals and only the third openly LGBTQ+ woman to serve on any federal appellate court. Long-time allies to the LGBTQ+ community were confirmed as well. Life-long champion for equality and employment rights, Kalpana Kotagal, was confirmed as the Commissioner of the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), and looking abroad, Stephanie Sanders Sullivan was confirmed as Ambassador to the African Union after withstanding attacks from extremists for her support of global LGBTQ+ rights.

We hope the 118th Congressional Scorecard will help you to stay informed on your elected officials' records on key issues that impact the LGBTQ+ community. We hope it serves as a valuable tool in holding your elected officials accountable in our shared efforts towards achieving equality without exception.

In Service,

Kelley Robinson
